

NOW Innovation Forum MEMBER FAQ

WHAT IS NOW?

Launched in 2016, Networks of Opportunity for Child Wellbeing (NOW) is an initiative of the Vital Village Network at Boston Medical Center and aims to build the capacity of local communities and coalitions working to promote child wellbeing and align early childhood systems of care and education by using a trauma-informed lens to advance equity.

WHAT IS THE NOW INNOVATION FORUM?

The NOW Innovation Forum brings together resources, stories, discussions, and other interactive tools in a central hub, to promote shared learning and networking among communities across the country that are working to ensure all children and their families achieve optimal health and wellbeing.

WHAT IS A MEMBER?

Anyone can become a member of the NOW Network by simply signing up for FREE on the NOW Innovation Forum website. As a member, you'll be joining a national network made up of champions, change makers, advocates, and organizations working to enable all children to achieve optimal health and wellbeing. Membership unlocks additional features on the site that enables deeper networking and interactions with fellow members.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

As a member, you will have the opportunity to:

- Connect with and learn from other community coalitions, local leaders, and stakeholders who are leading exciting work to improve the health of children and families;
- Learn about the impact of childhood adversity and adverse community environments on wellbeing;
- Share your story and examples of local innovations and strategies from your own community;
- Build capacity across key levers of community change, including how to mobilize broader community engagement, foster authentic community leadership, and use data and storytelling tools to measure progress; and
- Access a wide range of resources and tools to strengthen your efforts.
